

THE ROAD IN FRONT OF SARAI JULIENA IS FLOODED WITH SEWAGE WATER FOR NEARLY A MONTH NOW BUT NO ACTION HAS BEEN TAKEN.

• The Class 1 students of DAV Public School, Vasant Kunj, organised a colourful show.

A helping hand for Uttarakhand victims

htpacenotes

Students of Bloom Public School have decided to help the people of a village, Rull Gaon, in Sonprayag district of Uttarakhand. A fund raising event was organised for this where students put up art work such as Madhubani, Warli, canvas paintings, hand-made cards, mugs with the fundraiser logo and paper bags. The entrepreneur students put up stalls for hair braiding stall, nail art, games and Diwali diyas. The event was a huge success and the sum collected from it will be sent to the village directly. The principal, Ashutosh Batta supported the event.

• A fund raising event was organised by the students of Bloom Public School.

Sports meet for localevents

The Paralympic Committee of Delhi organised the 6th Delhi State athletics meet for the physically challenged and visually impaired sports persons at the Jawaharlal Nehru Stadium over the weekend. Nearly 400 students participated in the games governed by the International Paralympic Committee (IPC). Those present on the occasion included Dr DR Saini, principal DPS RK Puram, SS Rao, retired director of NDMC, DR Singhal, director Paralympic Committee of Delhi, Dr KK Koushal, president, Paralympic Committee, Vimal Taneja, senior vice president and Satbir Rana, joint secretary.

• A charity concert in support of autism.

Run

In the 150th birth anniversary year of Swami Vivekanand, the Swami Vivekanand Shanti Sathi Samaroh Samiti organised Bharat Jago Dand, a run for nation at 17 places across Delhi. Approximately 14,000 young girls and boys were present at the North Campus, Delhi University. Those present to motivate them included former cricketer Chetan Chauhan, wrestler Rajesh Kumar, wrestler, swimmer Bhanu Sachdeva and tennis player Indu Pari.

• Veteran cricketer Chandu Bode lauds Sachin Tendulkar.

Tribute

Rich tributes were paid to Sachin Tendulkar by veteran cricketer and former BCCI chairperson Chandu Bode at the Global Indian International Cricket Academy, Noida.

Awardees

