

Bloom Public School, Vasant Kunj

Bloom Public School, Vasant Kunj organised a three-day fest in which 13 schools participated and showcased their talent. School principal Ashutosh Batta inaugurated the event. The primary students had to spin a story, the stories were fictitious, well woven and kept them fully absorbed in their thoughts. Parents from the media background were asked to judge the best story. The middle school was kept engaged by turn coat, extempore and to enthrall the audience there was longue twisters. The seniors had cine edutainment movie making competition on the topics 'A literate need not always be educated', 'Advertising is all glitters but little truth' and 'Final exit from school'. Bloom Public School, Vasant Kunj bagged the first prize but did not claim. The first prize went to KIIT World School.
