Greetings of the Day Readers!

Hope this newsletter finds you safe and healthy.

We, the Student Council of Bloom Public School have started a monthly newsletter that aspires to create constitutional awareness, gender sensitivity, and scientific temper as enshrined in the National Educational Policy.

In this issue, we will be talking about importance of human rights and the celebration of it as Human Rights Day.

WHAT ARE HUMAN RIGHTS ?

Human rights are rights we have simply because we exist as human beings - they are not granted by any state. These universal rights are inherent to us all, regardless of nationality, sex, national or ethnic origin, color, religion, language, or any other status. They range from the most fundamental - the right to life - to those that make life worth living, such as the rights to food, education, work, health, and liberty.

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), adopted by the UN General Assembly in 1948, was the first legal document to set out the fundamental human rights to be universally protected. The UDHR, which turns 75 on 10 December 2023, continues to be the foundation of all international human rights law.

WHY ARE HUMAN RIGHTS IMPORTANT ?

Human rights form the foundation of a just and equitable society. They ensure that every person is treated with dignity, fairness, and equality. Protecting human rights leads to social stability, peaceful coexistence, and fosters the development of inclusive communities where everyone can thrive without discrimination.

3. Why is Human Rights Day celebrated?

Human Rights Day is commemorated annually on December 10th to honor the adoption of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights in 1948. It serves as a reminder of the importance of upholding and defending human rights worldwide, promoting equality, justice, and dignity for all.

4. Human rights as given by the law

Human rights are protected by international law through treaties, conventions, and agreements. These legal frameworks, such as the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the International Covenant on Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights, outline the obligations of governments to respect, protect, and fulfill the rights of individuals within their jurisdictions.

5. Specially abled and their human rights

Specially abled individuals have the same human rights as everyone else. The UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities emphasizes the rights of people with disabilities, advocating for their full participation in society, access to education, employment, healthcare, and the removal of barriers hindering their inclusion.

6. Significant Human rights movement of the world

Several significant human rights movements have shaped history, such as the Civil Rights Movement in the United States led by Martin Luther King Jr., the Anti-Apartheid Movement in South Africa, and the Women's Suffrage Movement advocating for women's rights to vote.

7. Human rights activists of the world

Numerous individuals have dedicated their lives to championing human rights globally. Icons like Nelson Mandela, Malala Yousafzai, Eleanor Roosevelt, and Mahatma Gandhi are celebrated for their relentless efforts in advocating for human rights, equality, and justice.

8. Words from the editor

On this Human Rights Day, let us reaffirm our commitment to upholding and defending human rights for all. It's crucial to recognize that the promotion and protection of these rights are essential for creating a more just, equitable, and peaceful world.

This newsletter aims to shed light on the significance of human rights, the struggles faced by many, and the inspiring individuals who have dedicated their lives to the advancement of these fundamental rights.
