Celebration

WHY ARE THESE DAYS CELEBRATED?

~Teachers' Day started with Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan. He was a philosopher, scholar, teacher, and politician and dedicated his work towards education, friendly and was very popular among his students. One day his students and friends requested him to allow them to celebrate his birthday in a fancy way. In return he said asked them to celebrate his birthday in respect of all teachers.

~ ILD (International Literacy Day) is celebrated in order to raise awareness about the problem of illiteracy, the importance of achieving minimum literacy, and to advance the literacy agenda towards a more literate and sustainable society.

What impact do Teachers have on Education?

Teachers don't only impart knowledge, but also help with character building as well.

Teachers can become a mentor to help set the child on the right path. In this role, teachers can encourage the student to be the best they can be, and also act as a source of inspiration/advice to the students.

Teachers are important because they change lives, inspire dreams, and push the limits of human potential. A teacher's job is to nurture, teach, and raise children to become useful to society and also to help children learn how to sustain themselves in life .

WHAT CAN WE, AS CITIZENS CONTRIBUTE TO THE TEACHER COMMUNITY AND EDUCATION?

Prioritizing the education of our children is essential and being a united community is one step closer to achieving the fit for future education every child needs. Now, students' social and emotional needs need to be answered first for them to be able to perform in class.

Being there, listening to them, getting to know their needs, helping them discover their passions, communicating and helping them in extra curricular activities. These little overlooked things are enough to boost a child's engagement and interest in school and other activities.
